CLASS HISTORY

FRESHMAN YEAR

On September 6, 1972, 674 Freshmen walked through the doors of the High School of Commerce, entering a whole new world of challenges and experiences that would continue through their next three years of high school.

As we entered our homerooms, school handbooks were issued to each of us. We were then introduced to such Commerce activities as G.O. athletics, and various clubs.

Our first real involvement in school activities began in December when our class attended an assembly to introduce us to the candidates running for Freshmen class elections. Elected were President, Vaughn Francis; Vice-president, Donald King; and Secretary, Marcia Johnson. Student Council members were Maureen Kapinos, Kathy Nektopoulos, Sue Henderson, Elizabeth Nosaluk, Maria Balgassi, and Filomena Vivenzio.

Our sports rallies were memorable ones as we cheered our boys on. Who could forget the class competitions? We yelled ourselves hoarse, but the seniors somehow always won.

We were proud to be Commencement when, in March, the school was notified that it had attained another ten-year accreditation. This was an honor bestowed on very few area high schools.

The Springfield School Committee, after many meetings with students, faculty, and administrators, granted smoking privileges on a trial basis to the city's four senior high schools.

Our basketball team made it all the way to the finals in the Western Mass. Tournament, only to fall victim to Pittsfield in a close game. The hockey team, although not as fortunate, also took part in play-off competition.

As the year drew to a close, we looked forward to our Junior year under the capable leadership of newly elected class officers, President, Sue Henderson; Vice-president, Brenda Burt; and Secretary, Kathy Nektopoulos. Student council members were: Linda Hamilton, Elizabeth Nosaluk, Debbie Talbot, Maria Balgassi, and Dianne Maragoudakis.

JUNIOR YEAR

September the 5th, 1973, the class of "'75" stepped through Commerce's doors as Juniors. Now accustomed to Commerce's rules, we lingered in the hall getting reacquainted with old friends until Mr. Sweeney's familiar voice could be heard saying, "Report to your homerooms! The five-minute bell has rung."

Soon after, our symbols of being a Junior arrived in the form of class rings. We were now full-fledged upper classmen. Our class began, in earnest, to get involved in school activities. First was the "Skills of the '70's" program directed by the Greater Springfield Chamber of Commerce.

An idea was proposed by the President of the Junior class, Sue Henderson, to establish a Blood Mobile program for the high school students in Springfield. The schools were united; and together, they produced a successful Blood Drive.

The student council, in an effort to attract more people to the Christmas dance, ruled that we could come stag if we wished. The dance was fairly successful, and all who attended enjoyed themselves.

The student council also held a successful Christmas drive for the Salvation Army; they collected 60 cans of food for needy people.

All our sports teams had successful seasons, both girls' and boys' teams.

The end of the school year was signalled by the Junior Prom with Margarita Diaz as the Queen. Her court consisted of Lucy Testa, Kathy Coughlin, Laura Verteramo, Julie Penman, and Muriel Borders.

Then came Class Day, where we sang John Denver's "Sunshine" to the parting Seniors, and for the first time sat in the special center aisle seats which are symbols of seniority.

SENIOR YEAR

On September 6, 1974, the doors of Commerce opened for all students; but for Seniors, this would be their last and most exciting year. The excitement began with all Seniors obtaining their senior hats and welcoming the Freshmen.

At the end of our Junior year, the class officers were elected for our Senior year. Those elected were: President, Valerie Bass; Vice-president, Linda Hamilton; and Secretary, Cynthia Hall. Student Council members were Sandy Stone, Elminia Falcon, Pam Duncan, Grace Dyson, Leo Williams, Cheryl Gillette, and Brenda Burt.

We all had a pleasant surprise with Seniors being awarded a free seventh period to use in a constructive and educational manner. It was the first time in Commerce's history that all were awarded such a privilege.

As the year progressed, our spirits were uplifted by rallies and other successful projects such as raising money for the African relief fund and a blood mobile drive that was successful for the second consecutive year. A lot of us were on T.V. when the Navy rock band, the Long Island Sound, came to perform.

As for Women's Lib, Commerce's girls basketball team did an outstanding job and was truly awarded the recognition that they so greatly deserved when they were awarded a berth in the Western Mass. Basketball tournament. As usual, in all the other sports (hockey, soccer, baseball, football, basketball, and wrestling) the Commerce spirit prevailed.

We closed out our Senior year with a flourish. How could we forget Class Day, May 16, and the many honors bestowed on our best students; the Senior Banquet and Dance, May 17; the Senior Prom, May 31, with the many memories of that night, Margarita Diaz, Queen, and her court: Laura Verteramo, Laura Malvezzi, Narvis Fryar, Julie Mitchell, and Kathy Coughlin; and finally, Graduation, the night for which we had waited for many long, happy years. Although we have gone, we leave with many fond memories of the High School of Commerce and are looking forward to seeing each other again at our first reunion.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1975, feel it is of the utmost importance to leave, in writing, our last will and testament to future classes of this institution.

1. Silvia Penna leaves Mr. Mazurowski an anchovy and horse radish sandwich.
2. Gail Govoni leaves Mrs. Vaughan her ace-bandages so she can wrap up Mr. Meacham's body.
3. Homeroom 211 leaves Miss Hogan a tall, dark, and handsome man — Mr. Gormally in 210.
4. The Seniors on the Caduceus staff leave Mr. Ciesluk with another "competent" staff who can't do anything right.
5. The price of hamburgers is rising steadily, but Mr. Basili's detention list is skyrocketing.
6. Mr. Norman's Sociology classes leave him with a problem he can't solve.
7. Mrs. Carroll's Steno class leaves her with one mailable letter.
8. Lisa Aveyard & Carole Fleming leave Mr. Basili with a million original reasons for being late.
9. We leave a lot of hot air for next year's winter.
10. The Seniors leave the Juniors with early dismissal as long as they keep up the good name of Commerce at the Water Wheel.
11. Seniors leave the Freshmen trying to win class competition.
12. The class of '75 leaves Mr. Sweeney a new set of nerves.
13. We leave the Juniors and Freshmen with an easy escape route to McDonald's.
14. Mary Amato and Diane DiFiore leave Mr. Phillips with all the possible reasons there are for getting out of Steno.
15. Mary Serwatka & Gina Spagnoli leave Mr. Albano 2,000 lbs. of beach sand to play with.
16. The class of '75 leaves Commerce a thousand boys for the future.
17. The Senior girls leave Dr. Midura taps for her shoes, so she can be heard entering the girls room.
18. Period 5A Psychology class leaves Mrs. Poliak an up-to-date dictionary on modern slang talk.
19. Hal Etkin leaves his hockey skates to next year's Peter Puck.
20. Mrs. Carroll's steno classes leave her an ish, chay, and a jay.
21. Linda Hamilton leaves Commerce two more Hamilton's to cope with.
22. Gail Serafino leaves her mouth to the Kentucky Derby because it's always running.
23. The 1974-1975 newspaper staff leaves Miss DiSanti a pair of track shoes for next year's Walk-a-thon.
24. Cheryl Gillette leaves the High School of Commerce Band lots of clarinet players.
25. Craig Chernack leaves just so he can get out of football practice.
26. To Mr. Trespas, a book of 101 scientific experiments.
27. Cathy Duncan leaves Mr. Shea some new typewriters.
28. Denise Lamoureux leaves Mrs. Ghidoni a smarter biology student the second time around.

29. Theresa Bajek leaves Mrs. Reed a bottle of aspirin and a set of earmuffs.
30. We leave Mrs. Bennett wondering who took the candy off her desk.
31. The class of '75 leaves Mr. Gormally passing out oranges, apples, bananas, milk, sandwiches, etc, etc, etc.
32. We leave Mr. Sweeney our thanks for putting up with us during the past three years.
33. Leslie Jaynes leaves with detention for being late for graduation.
34. Roberto Diaz leaves wishing he could stay another year.
35. Hal Etkin leaves saying "Do you dig it?"
36. Noreen, Sue, Julie, and Wendy leave Mr. Phillips the telephone number of Seven Kettles.
37. The class of '75 leaves Mr. Corcoran a book of good jokes.
38. Denise Graham is thankful she is leaving.
39. We leave Mr. Mazurowski a book on how to slow down.
40. Period I Class leaves Mr. Czech a book of easy, take-home tests.
41. Laura leaves with Mike.
42. Gina Willoughby leaves Mr. Coleman fifteen cents to buy his own morning newspaper.
43. Ronnie Yates and John Pearson leave Mr. Ryan their white football socks and white kleats.
44. Linda and Bethune leave Mr. Basili some fancy new ties.
45. This is the year of inflation. Burger King now costs you five hours.
46. We leave the Junior class footsteps to follow in.
47. Mary Doyle leaves Mr. Phillips a new handkerchief.
48. Rodell Dixon leaves for the second time.
49. Fred and Jim leave Mr. Troy the money for the table they broke at second lunch.
50. Bill Kellogg and Dan Nolan leave Mr. Conchieri a new chess board.
51. We leave Mr. Martin a can of Cling Free to keep his pants from sticking to his socks.
52. We leave Mr. "D" hanging in there.
53. We leave Mrs. Bennett a tape recorder saying "Throw out the gum, throw out the gum, throw out the gum."
54. For giving us period seven free we say to Mr. Sweeney, "Thanks, we needed that."
55. To Mrs. Astorino we leave a live frog.
56. We leave the girls room full of smoke.
57. Lynne Kennedy leaves Miss DiSanti a plant that will grow.
58. We leave Miss Fisher saying "Will you please bring in your excuse tomorrow?"
59. To Mr. Gormally we leave an all expense paid trip to the jungles of South America to distribute all the unwanted fruit.
60. Seniors leave the Juniors the center aisle of the auditorium.
61. To Everyone — we leave our thanks.

Strike!!!

"It's your turn, I fixed them last time"

See if you can hit that one!

BASEBALL

The Commerce baseball team, coached by Mr. Taylor, finished their 1974 season with a 8-11 win-loss record.

The highlight of this season was the defeat inflicted upon Western Mass. Tournament members St. Mary's and Smith Academy.

There will be seven returning veterans next year and the season looks very promising for the Raiders. Among the returning players, Curt Ostrander was selected to the All-City baseball team for 1974. Jack Smith and Isaac Williams received honorable mention for All-City.

Tri-captains John Smith, Jim D'Ambrosio, and Curt Ostrander.

"One pitcher at a time!"

"When am I up?"

It's a hit!!!

TRACK

The track team had a rough season due to the shortage of man power. Although there was a lack of man power on the team, they never gave up.

The standouts of the track season were Bobby Rose, Bobby Willingham and Steve Juszyk.

The Highlight of the season was when Bobby Willingham was chosen for the Western Mass. Tournament.

Up, up, and away!

"What was that, again?"

"Where's everybody else?"

Coming down to earth.

"Should I throw it now?"

"Let a pro show you how."

Coming in for a landing.

"Am I going to make it?"

"I bet I broke the record!"

"On your mark, get set

"I thought I could make it."

SOFTBALL

"Don't worry, it's my curve ball."

Goofing off before the game.

"Nice game."

FRONT ROW, LEFT TO RIGHT: Cindy Stanek, Silvia Penna, Emily Gillis, Robin Timothy, Kathy Coughlin, Pat Alli. BACK ROW: Ginny Stebbins, Debbie Legacy, Paula Siren, Casandra Washington, Donna Connaughton.

Nice Bunt!

Getting ready for the game

Brief discussion before the game

The girls softball team had a good season this year due to the excellent coaching of Miss Greenleaf.

The girls started their season with a win against Technical High with a score of 13-3. They also defeated Putnam with a score of 15-6. The highlight of the season was the defeat of American International College with a score of 16-9.

The standouts of the season were: Robin Timothy, Silvia Penn, Cindy Stanek, Casandra Washington, and Filomena Vivencio.

FIRST ROW, LEFT TO RIGHT: Glenn Hall, Carlton Brown, Ken Kelleher, Carl Redd. SECOND ROW: David Paire, Tyler Washington, Festus Hill, John Pearson, Albert Thomas, Troy Jimmerson. THIRD ROW: Numberto Garcia, Bill LaFond, Kevin Malone, Craig Chernack, Barry Brown, Craig Butler. FOURTH ROW: Marc Pedraza, Michael Malone, Teddy Graham, Mikel Mumford, Homer Davis, Rick Scott, Joe Codero, Bob Rose. FIFTH ROW: Keith Partlow, Willie Spradley, Tony Cooke, Vernon Cole, Cris Doyle, Ron Yates.

"Now listen guys"

It sure doesn't look good!

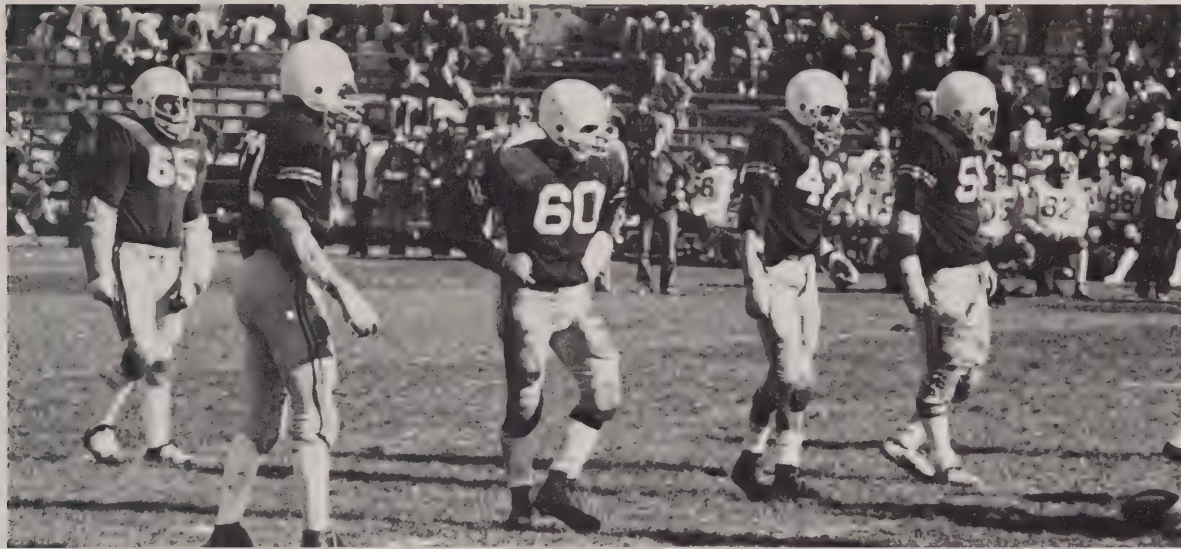

"Just try and stop me."

Hold that line.

Lets get this show on the road.

Somebody get 'em.

FOOTBALL

This past football season was fairly successful even though the win-loss record showed a losing season. On four different occasions the Commerce team ended near the goal line ready to score when time ran out before the winning or tying scores could be recorded.

Highlights of the season were:

- 1) John Pearson's outstanding running for over 1000 yards in six games.
- 2) Seven players from Commerce ranking All-City — the most of any team in the city.

All the way.

SOCCER

The Commerce soccer team had a losing season with a 1-8, win-loss record. The Raiders were outmanned in every game, but stuck together as a team.

The highlight of the season was the game against Classical. The Raiders held Classical, the number one team in Western Massachusetts, to only one goal, but lost 1-0.

The alternating captains were: Curt Ostrander, Chris Dinas, John Manzi, and Fred Bozoglos.

Take that ball away.

Help him!

Give him some room.

How did he get the ball?

Team captains

Don't just look at it, kick it.
That's using your head.

Soccer Team Names: FIRST ROW: LEFT TO RIGHT: John Auclair, Chris Dinas, Curt Ostrander, Fred Bozoglos, Dan Carestia, John Manzi, Kevin Flanagan, Hal Etkin. SECOND ROW: John Lyons, Jay Randolph, Wayne Marchese, Paul Lawrence, Scott Marchese, Glenn Ladd, John Moran, Fernando Russo, Coach Joe Taylor.

Am I seeing double?

Somebody help me!

You can catch her.

FIELD HOCKEY

Now listen, "This is serious".

"Is this the right way?"

One and two and . . .

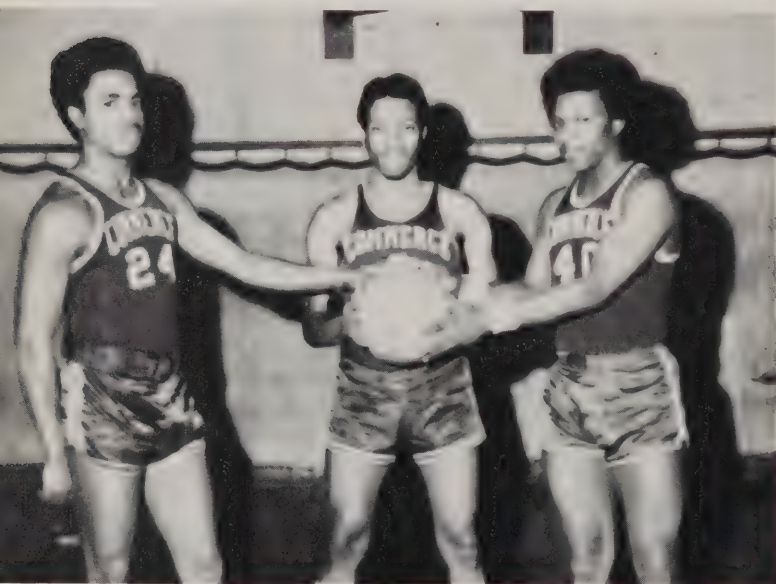

"Look out; here it comes."

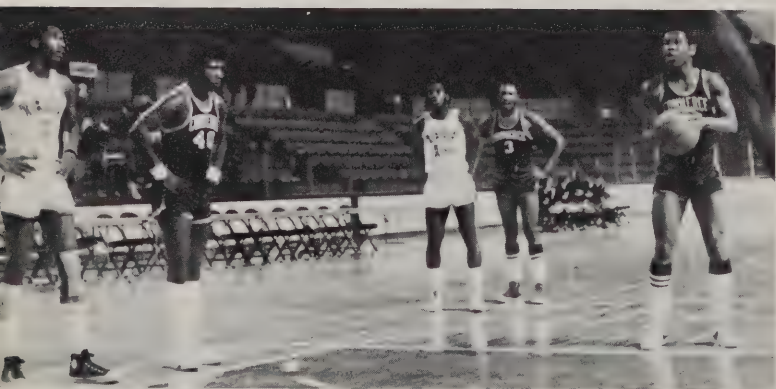

The Girls Field Hockey team ended its season with a great win over MacDuffie. The girls who were outstanding throughout the season were Mae Richards, Kathy Duncan, and Robin Timothy. The great coaching by Mrs. Williams led their team to become good offensively and defensively. Although their record wasn't fantastic, the girls learned to play as a team and also enjoyed themselves.

Team Captains

Who moved the basket?

Let's wait until it comes down.

"Just wait, you'll get your turn."

BASKETBALL

The Commerce High School basketball team, after a strong start, finished with a mediocre season. Scholastic ineligibility and injuries depleted the team's strength which was enough to lose many close, key games. The highlight of the season was the Raiders' victory over Chicopee Comprehensive, the eventual "number one seed" in the Western Mass. Tournament. James Gee was outstanding in this game for which he was awarded the "Republican's" Player-of-the-week award. Roosevelt Witcher and Clauzell Blackshear, along with Gee, played outstanding ball all year.

Simon says, "Hands on hips."

"O.K. guys, This is a basketball."

We've got to stretch a little bit more!

The High School of Commerce 1974-75 Cheerleaders deserve special credit for tremoundous school spirit and great support for all our sport teams. Their great enthusiasm, and also the support of the student body, contribute greatly to the success of our teams.

This year's squad consisted of Captain-Diane Cole, Co-Captain-Linda Hamilton, Ginger Bembenek, Theresa Baldyga, Kathy Coughlin, Dawn Buss, Vera Dubay, Annie Rivera, Karen Merriweather, Ann Green, Joy Provost, Debbie Scanlon and Mickey Tosaldo.

Getting ready for a rally.

"How's this for a pose?"

"Did you see that basket?"

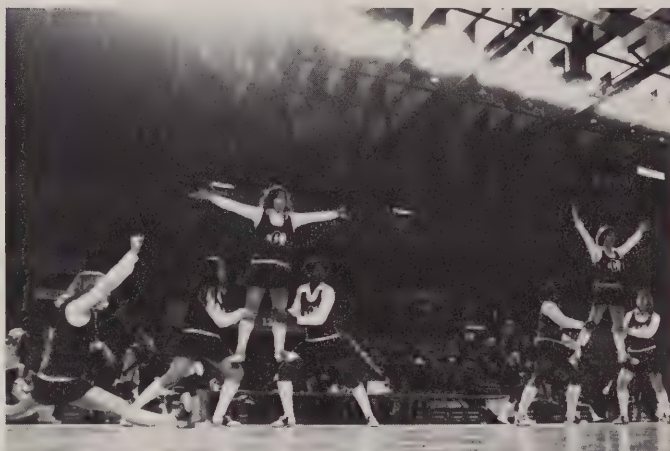

Rah, Rah!

A good rally leader.

Another time out.

Fight team, FIGHT!

Let's Win!

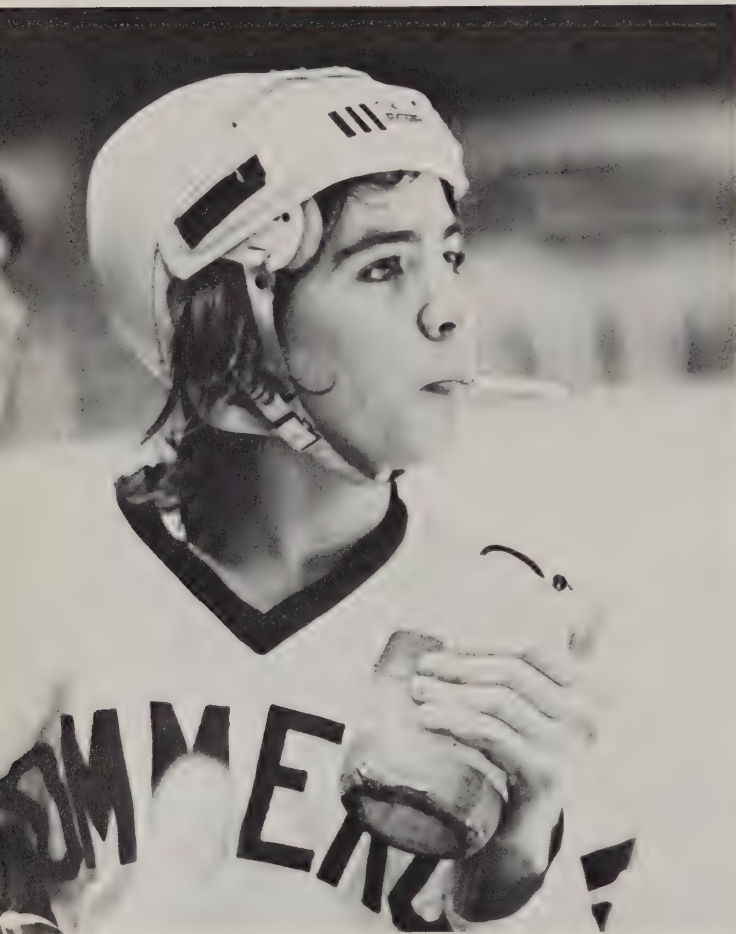

All together now.

Got the spirit, lets hear it.

HOCKEY

Boy am I thirsty.

They'd make a great dance team, HUH?

Hey watch out or the wall!

How did we miss it?

Could you please move your stick?

S-T-R-E-T-C-H

Score!

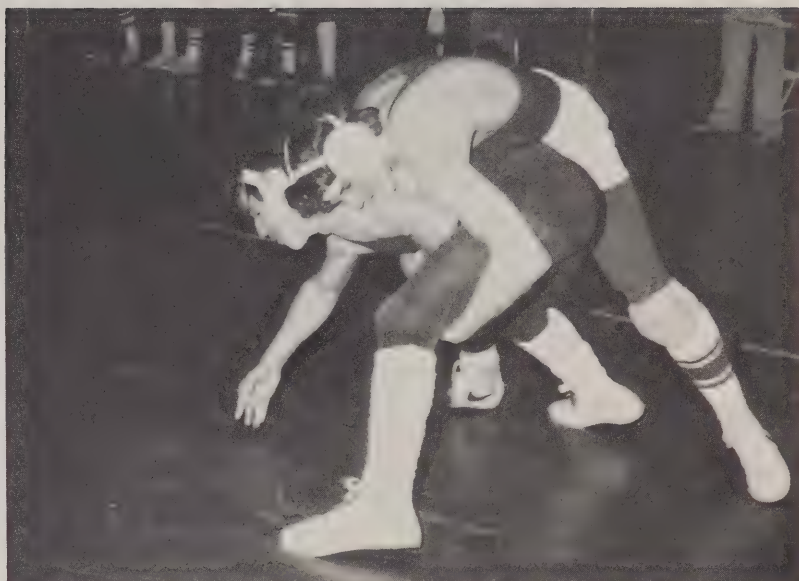

The Commerce High School Hockey Team felt bad times this year winning three (3) games, although, in only a few games, were badly outclassed. Danny Carestia led the Raiders' scoring machine ably helped by Wayne and Scott Marchese while John Auclair and Jay Randolph played a strong defense in front of alternating goalies Ron Mack, Curt Ostrander and Glenn Ladd.

Paul Lawrence's head injury forced him out for the season and didn't help morale any.

WRESTLING

Nice to meet you.

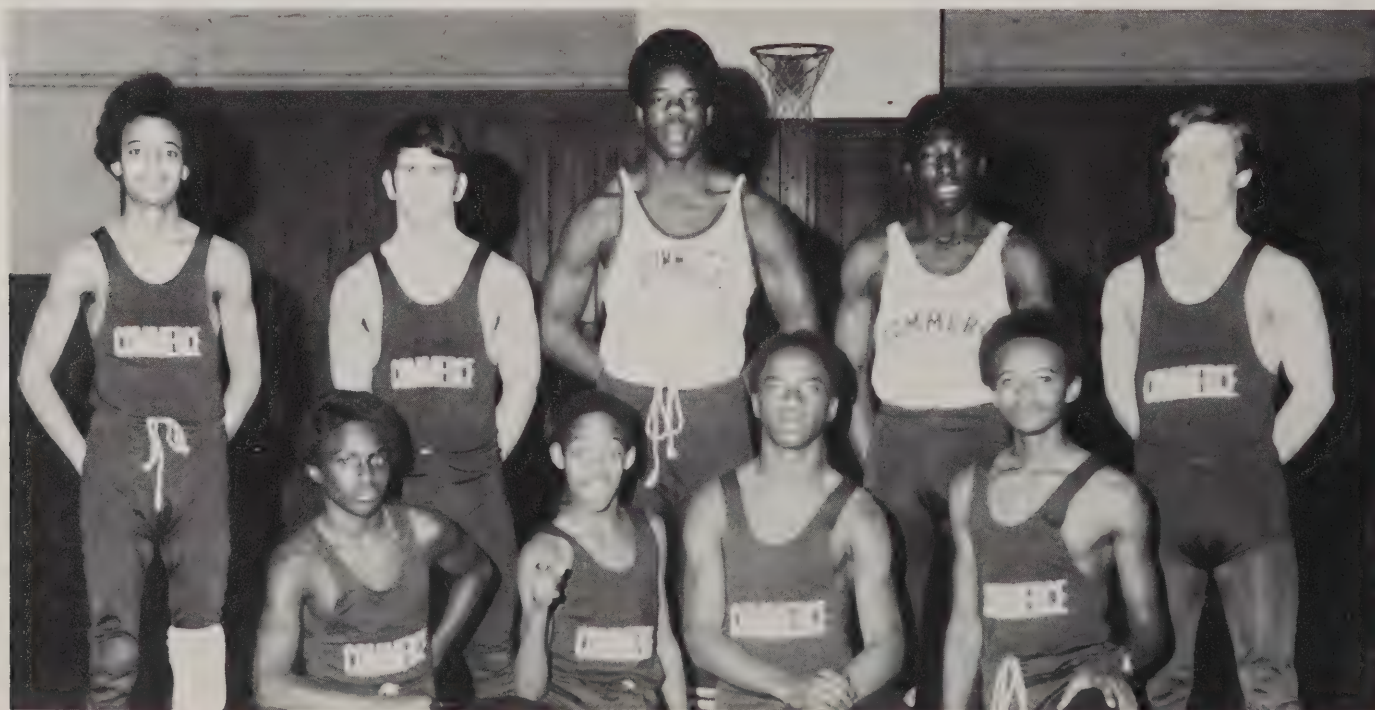

Bear Hug!

He's pinned, are you blind?

FRONT ROW; LEFT TO RIGHT: Randy Sullivan, Ron Sullivan, Carl Moore, James Stewart. SECOND ROW: Daryl Hall, Craig Chernack, Keith Partlow, Chris Dinas.

Ride-em cowboy!

Can't somebody untie them?

Is he hurt?

Play time!

The Commerce wrestling team had a winless season this year, but the individual wrestlers: Craig Chernack, Chris Dinas, Tom Ivery, Randy Sullivan, did outstanding work in competition this year.

James Charter, Keith Partlow, and Daryl Hall, who are beginners, improved tremendously, while aiding the small but aggressive Raider team.

Straight Lines?

Hands at your sides.

Don't look at your feet.

Lots of legs!

Waiting for instructions.

Keep in step girls.

DRILL TEAM

The Drill team has been an active, enthusiastic part of the High School of Commerce for 15 years. The Drill team is always ready and willing to march in a parade, drill at basketball games, and perform at rallies.

The outstanding girls who have been members for 2 years are: Pam Hall, Julie Koberna, Cindy Joubert, Cynthia Pugh, Cheryl Dupre.

Hey what are we doing?

GIRLS BASKETBALL

It looks pretty tough.

"Hey, don't start the game without me."

Just wait you'll get your turn.

Don't hit me with it!

If I could just get it in there.

The High School of Commerce Girl's Basketball team played in the Western Mass Tournament for the first time in the history of girls' Basketball. In addition the girls became co-city champs by defeating a well drilled Putnam team with a score of 59-51.

The outstanding players for the season were Darlene Belton, Casondra Washington, Kathy Coughlin and Robin Timothy.

BOWLING

The Commerce bowlers started off well at the beginning of the season, but were Inconsistent towards the end of the season.

They ended in fourth place in a five (5) team league with a 25-39 win-loss record.

Karen Colonna, the first girl on the team, was the steadiest bowler. Wayne Richie had the highest three strings of the Raider team with a score of 325.

Bowling them over!

FRONT ROW: Bill Kellogg, Rodell Dixon, Rueben Borrero. 2nd ROW: Jim Vadnais, Dan Nolan, Bruce Burton, Maurice Goldsom.

First girl!

Do I still have to show you?

Team Picture.

Congratulations from a real pro.

But I think I need a longer club.
Would you believe — a "Birdie"?

Ricky Scott, Wayne Marchese, Danny Carestia, Scott Marchese, Fred Blanchard.

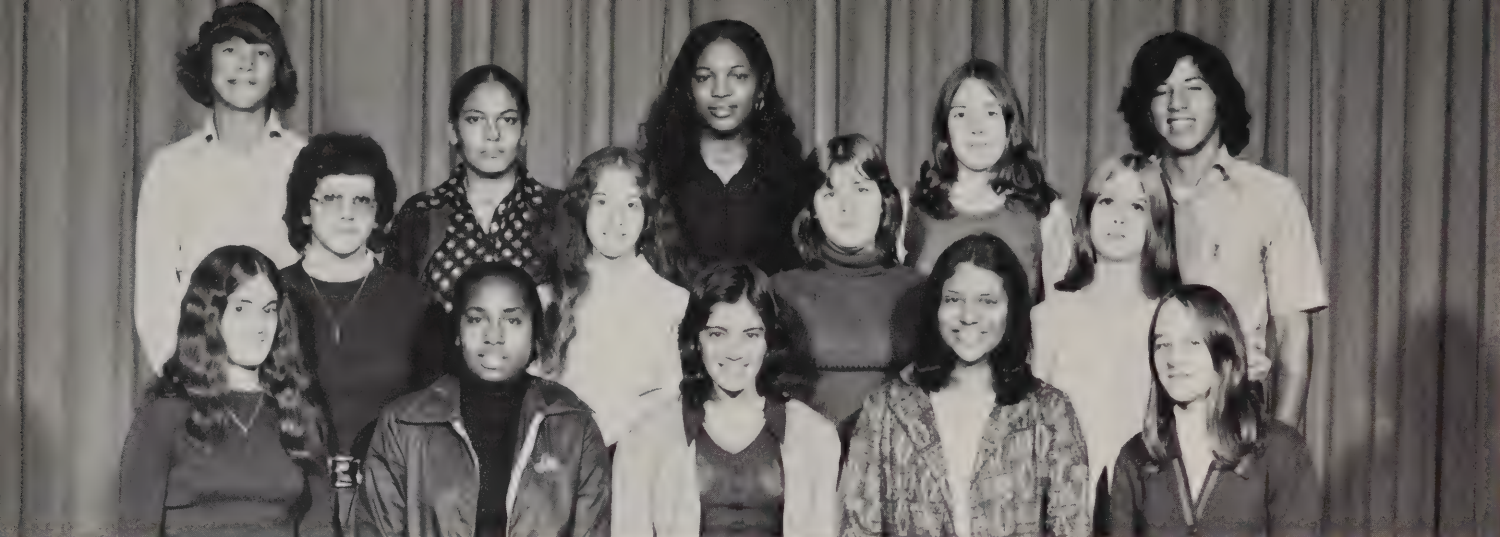

It was a good season for the golf team, which was headed by Mr. Conchieri.

The team played well together to make it an exciting season. The highlight of the season was when Wayne Marchese, Fred Blanchard, and Scott Marchese went to the Western Mass. Golf Tournament.

ACTIVITIES

1974 JUNIOR PROM

The Junior Prom of the Class of 1975 took place at the Springfield Civic Center in April of last year. The members of the prom court were Lucy Testa, Kathy Coughlin, Laura Verteramo, Margarita Diaz (queen), Muriel Borders, and Julie Penman.

BEAUTIFYING COMMERCE

To improve Commerce with an annual appearance of geraniums, this group planted and took care of the flowers with the help of Miss DiSanti and Mr. Basili.

GENERAL ORGANIZATION AUDITORS

Probably the most hectic room in the building is 113. Under the direction of Mr. Concheri, twenty-six seniors collect and record the payments for school activities. Without these students our G.O. drive would not be as successful as it is.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society Induction, a very exciting experience for new members and a proud time for two-year members, was held October 21, in the High School of Commerce auditorium. Many of the parents of the new members were present for this honorable occasion. The NHS was very lucky in being graced with the presence of Mr. Harry Melikian, who is a former student of Commerce and member of the NHS. Mr. Melikian discussed the need for effort in all things and his greatfulness to those at Commerce who helped him along his way to success. Mr. Sweeney also gave a few remarks and his words were absorbed and enjoyed by all. After there was a reception for the members and their guests and refreshments were served. The National Honor Society controls the High School of Commerce store. There are bookcovers, pencils, pens, notebooks for sale. The recent additions to the merchandise are paperback books and the traditional Commerce baner. The profits from the store are used to pay for college board tests and scholarships.

THE NEWSPAPER STAFF

"Commerce," the student newspaper is published every six weeks, October through June.

Through dedication, hard work, and the cooperation of the staff, monthly deadlines are met competently and efficiently.

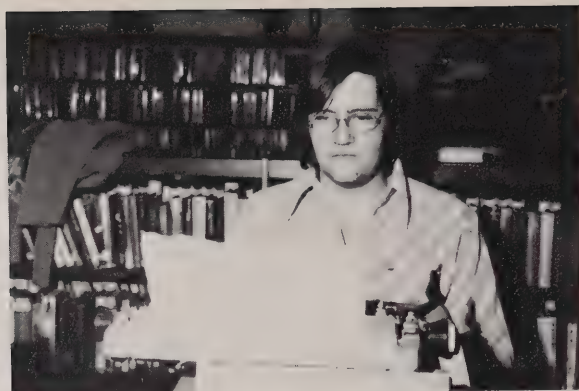

Excellence among school papers on a national level and citations from local school officials for a high-quality publication have been received by "Commerce" Staffs through the years.

Advisor for "Commerce" is Miss Adelina DiSanti, whose endless efforts in teaching makes possible a new Staff each year.

LONG ISLAND SOUND

In December the High School of Commerce was honored with a visit from the "Long Island Sound". This nine-piece band are all men from the United States Navy who are stationed in Newport, Rhode Island and seem to do quite a bit of traveling to other high schools in Massachusetts. Their concert consisted of songs from popular performers such as: Seals & Croft, Chicago, and Stevie Wonder.

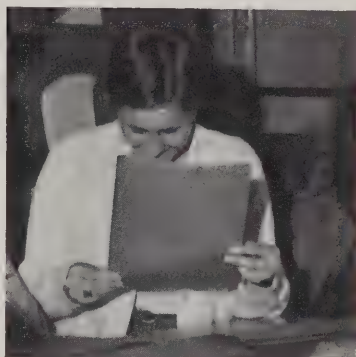

RED CROSS

The Red Cross under the direction of Miss Hogan, Room 211, made decorations for various hospitals in the area. This year they decorated the Holyoke Soldiers' Home and the Veterans' Hospital in Leeds, Massachusetts. As an extra project the High School of Commerce Red Cross came to the aid of the victims of the Honduran Flood by collecting over $100 in relief funds.

THE CONCERT CHOIR

Members for the choir are selected by audition and outstanding performance.

Unusual, traditional, and popular music are all part of the choir's repertoire.

Singing whenever and wherever the opportunity arises in assemblies, churches, banquets and graduation, the group performs often each year.

Interest and enthusiasm is high, and standards demanding.

Commerce is proud of its well trained choral groups which, under Mr. Conway's direction, have attained an enviable reputation.

"Get your programs here!"

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club, started in the fall of 1972, has now been in existence for over 3 years. It has a total of 13 members who are allowed to practice and play Chess in the school library any period they have free. They are members of the Western Mass. Chess Club League, and compete against other schools throughout the school year. With team captain William Kellogg, and the team members, the Chess Club should prove to be one of our best ever.

Members of the team are Thomas C. Ivery, Richard Scott, Keith B. Partlow, William Kellogg, Paul Giroux, Daniel Nolan, Ruben Borrero, Gary Tebety, Robert Stromberg, David Cotter, Scott Marchese, Hal Etkin, and Paul Silva.
